

Demo Scenes (please click pic)

First 15 minutes of Episode 1: The Gift
Kevin steals dishes for his Mom's birthday. He needs cash and wants to work for mob boss Carlos Marcello. He also needs to score some dope. Lee Harvey Oswald is sent to Russia and flown to Cuba by David Ferrie along with Jack Ruby, being sent for a hit on Castro on behalf of the mob. Clay Shaw organizes young whites to counter black sit-in protestors at Woolworths.

Leading the legal fight in the Civil Rights battle in the 50s was a group of young black lawyers led by legendary attorney A.P. Tureaud called the Martinet Society. Future Mayor of New Orleans Dutch Morial wants to sue the Monteleone Hotel for not allowing black musician Sonny Rollins to stay there. His wife Sybil is a school teacher who was the center of a lawsuit that finally broke segregation in NO public schools.

Big Oil took over SE LA in the 50s, bent on extracting every drop of oil holding up the terrain. A young geology graduate from Tulane, returns home to Houma to control the area. Clay Shaw is one of his benefactors as the young man ruthlessly cuts out the competition.

The town is dry and Kevin needs a fix, bad. Even Jewel is out, but manages to shake out a few boxes for the two of them.

Dutch Morial and Sybil discuss plans to desegregate the public schools under the guidance of A.P. Tureaud, the lawyer who co-wrote Brown vs Board with Thurgood Marshall.

The Civil Rights movement was perceived by right wing groups as a 5th column for the Commies. Clay Shaw, reputable businessman, CIA operative and closet drag queen runs the operation to thwart them.

Heroin was big in the 50s and Dutch's best friend, Horrie, dies from an overdose of uncut pure heroin Kevin sold him, after he stole it from the CIA.

David Ferrie CIA pilot, handyman for the Mafia and also experiments on mice in his apartment to design a cancer bullet, which could take out enemies such as Castro.

Prominent members of New Orleans society belonged to white supremacist groups like the Citizens League and KKK to combat the growing threat of blacks getting equal rights.

Kevin and his pregnant, strung-out girlfriend are staying at a prostitute motel on Tulane.

Kevin schemes to steal drugs and money to support his habit and further his career in crime. Here he escapes after robbing the drug vault at KBs.

